

Benjamin Armus

benarmus@utexas.edu | +1 (516) 633-4453 | Austin, TX | Linkedin | Website

EDUCATION

The University of Texas at Austin

Ph.D. Student, History Austin, TX
Advisor: Dr. Madeline McMahon
Major Field: Early Modern Europe

William & Mary

B.A., History and French & Francophone Studies May 2026
Williamsburg, VA

- GPA: 3.79/4.0; Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Alpha Theta (History Honors), Alpha Delta Gamma (Medieval and Renaissance Studies Honors)
- Senior Thesis: “Epistemic Authority and the Academic Disputation in Early Modern England” (Highest Honors)
- Studied at Hertford College, University of Oxford, Jan. 2025 – Jun. 2025, tutorials in medieval and early modern history.

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

Gale Academic

Digital Humanities Intern Aug. 2025 – Jan. 2026
Remote

- Wrote a digital humanities research article using the Gale Digital Scholar Lab for the Gale Research Showcase.
- Created blog and social media content highlighting archival materials.
- Organized an on-campus event promoting Gale resources, and engaged in professional development through weekly skill-building sessions.

William & Mary Residence Life

Resident Assistant Aug. 2023 – May 2026
Williamsburg, VA

- Peer leader for ~ 20-30 first-year students in Nicholson Hall, Spotswood Hall, and Gooch Hall.
- Managed bonding events and enforced University policy, mentored new Resident Assistants.

PUBLICATIONS

- “The Transformation of University Pedagogy in Eighteenth Century England” Gale Research Showcase (2026).
- “Crown and Gown: The Death of Religious Disputations at Oxford and Cambridge” Charles James Fox Society Magazine, Volume 1, 23-38.
- “‘Le Temps Passé n’est Plus:’ Transcending the Past and Temporalizing the French Revolution” James Blair Historical Review Volume 14, 8-23.

SKILLS & ACTIVITIES

- Activities:
 - Independent Blog: Probabilitias Ongoing
 - Managing Editor of the James Blair Historical Review 2025-26
 - President of the William & Mary History Club 2024-26
 - Vice President of the William & Mary History Club 2023-24
- Skills:
 - Languages: French (advanced speaking and reading proficiency), Latin (intermediate reading proficiency)
 - Digital Humanities: Python (Pandas, NLTK), Gale Digital Scholar Lab